Valpak does not trade through agents. We have recently noticed an increase in businesses and / or people purporting to represent Valpak, some even have websites with material illegally copied from our website. Normally, they ask for payment upfront before dry recyclate is despatched. They are illegally representing themselves as Valpak and are violating our trademarks.

We are already aware that people are using Alibaba.com, valpakr@yahoo.com and valpakrecyclingltd.webs.com to illegally represent themselves as being associated with Valpak.

Please do not become a victim to these scams. Please inform us via info@valpak.co.uk if you become aware of, or suspect, anyone passing themselves off as being Valpak.
